Stanford University

This is a test homework assignment meant to help familiarize yourself with the Gradescope platform. Please note that while 1 point is indicated for each question below, no grade will be assigned for this homework assignment. The scores are there for illustrative purposes.

Problem 1 (1 point)

What is your name?

Problem 2 (1 point)

Which program are you in?

Problem 3 (1 point)

Note that we will not be relying on the autograder that is provided by Gradescope. Instead, you will be submitting the code portion of your assignments with your write-up. As a part of the submission, you are required to assign pages to each of the questions being graded.
